Beauty of forms combined with usefulness is the motto from which Mr. DeArmott's students draw inspiration. Their creations which include skis, lamps, cobbler's benches, wall and book shelves, coffee tables, wrought iron work, etc. always reflect the love and pride which true craftsmen demonstrate in fashioning their work.

This year over forty students made use of the well-equipped craft rooms where numerous working facilities are at their disposal--tools for leather work, hand-skill looms for weaving, a small kiln for metal enameling, and a large kiln for ceramic, sculpture, and pottery. Equipment for stenciling, shell jewelry, wood burning, and linoleum block carving is also available.

In addition to the "Smoscar" project for the senior superlatives, two exhibitions are planned each year. The one at Christmas is highlighted by a creche made by the students--new pieces being added to the permanent collection each year. At present, there are about seventy-five pieces. The Spring Day exhibition includes metal work and leather craft, and features competitive work in sculpture. Prizes are awarded for the three best pieces.

Yearbook

The yearbook staff is comprised of a group of students who are neither afraid of hard work, nor looking for glory

Some of the duties of the editors and the staff are to portray, with a suitable aphorism, the personality of each senior, to write a resume of the activities of each school organization, to organize a complete photography coverage of school events, to solicit advertisements to help defray the expenses of the yearbook, and last but not least, to meet and beat the deadlines.

THE BREEZE

THE BREEZE is the result of a combined effort by the staff to reproduce school life in print.

An attempt is also made to strengthen student-teacher relations through the medium of thought provoking articles submitted by both members of the faculty and student body. In this way, THE BREEZE serves not only as a source of news but as a source of intellectual stimulation as well.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN, organized October 1, 1957, constitutes the first academic society at Kents Hill since the old literary societies closed their books in 1941, after a century and a quarter of continuous activities.

Created to increase greater interest in the students' knowledge of Germany, DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN seeks to fulfill its purpose through social and professional bi-weekly meetings.

In their attempts to enhance these meetings, the members have striven to create a Germanic motif throughout their clubrooms.

Club members are, Left to Right, KNEELING: R. Clark, J. Walbridge, and A. Bishop. FIRST ROW: D. Pinckham, Hist., Mr. Ford, Adv., J. Kisonak, Treas., C. Reed, V. Pres., D. Stevenson, Pres., A. Choir and Glee Club

The Kents Hill Choir performed regularly during vesper services in the Chapel, and occasionally at Sunday morning services in the local Methodist Church. Special concerts during the year included the annual Christmas Vesper Service and the exchange concert presented in April with the Helron Academy Glee Club. A special feature of the Helron-Kents joint concert was the performance of a selection of choruses from George Gershwin's famous musical, "Oh, Lady Be Good." The Choir also took part in the New England Private School Music Festival which took place at Fryeburg Academy on May 3.

Outing Club

With a record membership of eighty-six, the Outing Club had a successful and busy year.

In the fall, the Club sponsored two mountain trips, several outings at the Cabin, a dance, a party for members, and a Christmas reception for the Good Will School.

The varied activities of the Winter Carnival Week End, organized by the Club, created a great deal of animation on campus. The snow sculptures, in particular, were executed with a high degree of excellence and competition.

The spring schedule included a dance and several outdoor events. Pins and arm patches were also being considered for members.

G. A. A.

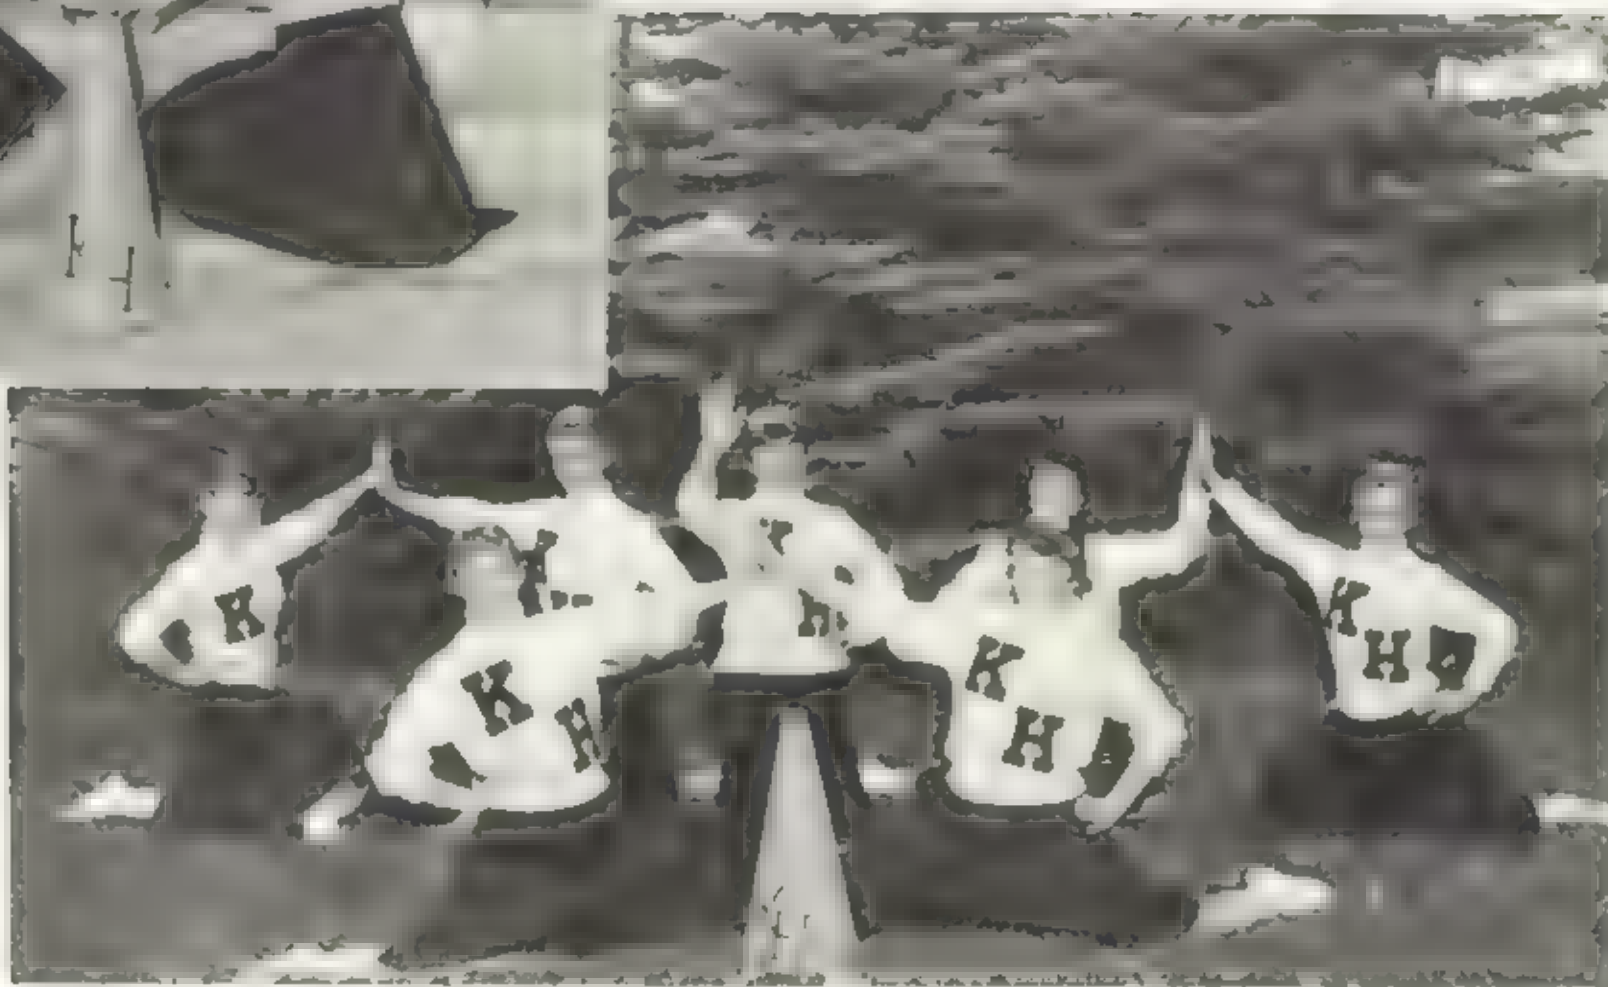

This year the GAA sponsored the Christmas formal, "Twilight in Toyland" and "BERP" (Boys Economic Recovery Program) Week Ends. Due to hard work on the part of many GAA members, these two events turned out well. The "BERP" program included a talent show and a dance, "Shamrock Shag."

C H E E R S !

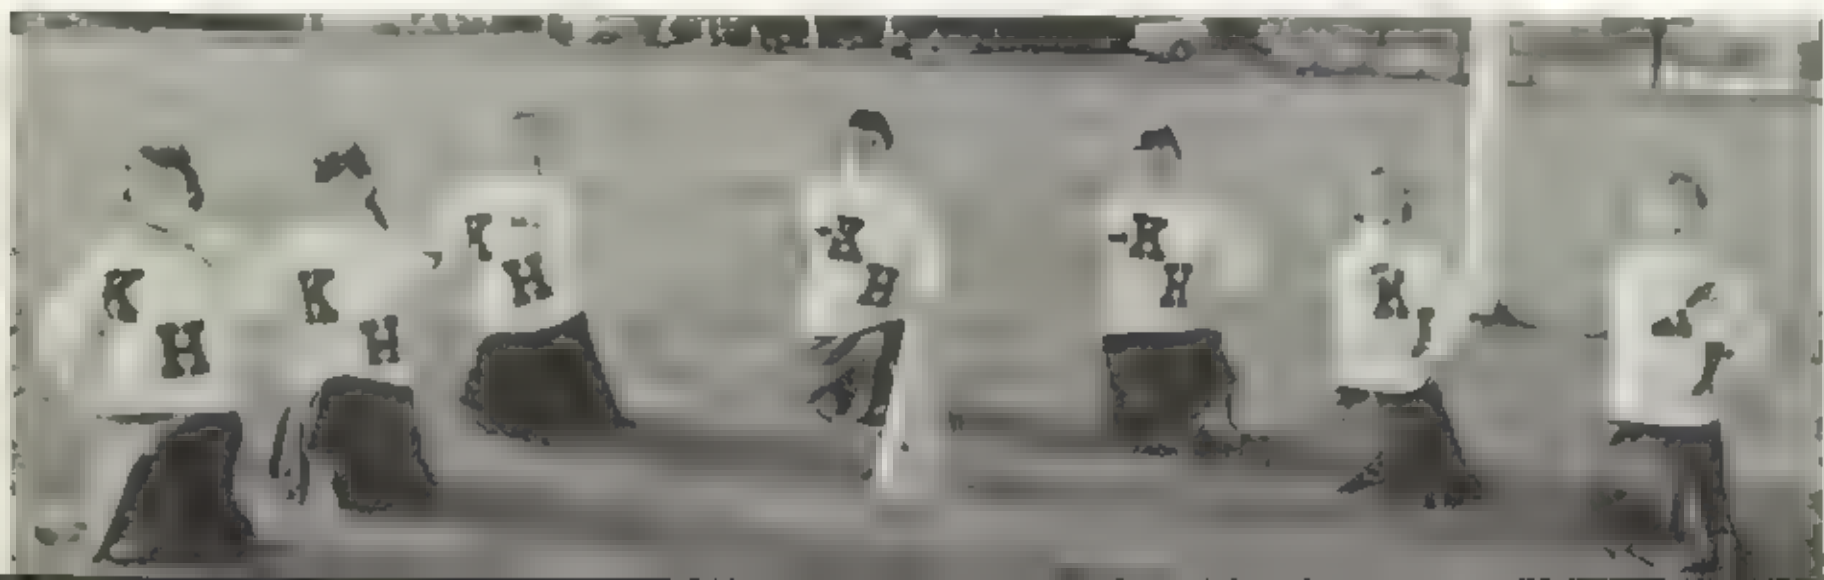

This year's gay and light-footed cheerleaders upheld the fighting spirit of our teams, rain or shine

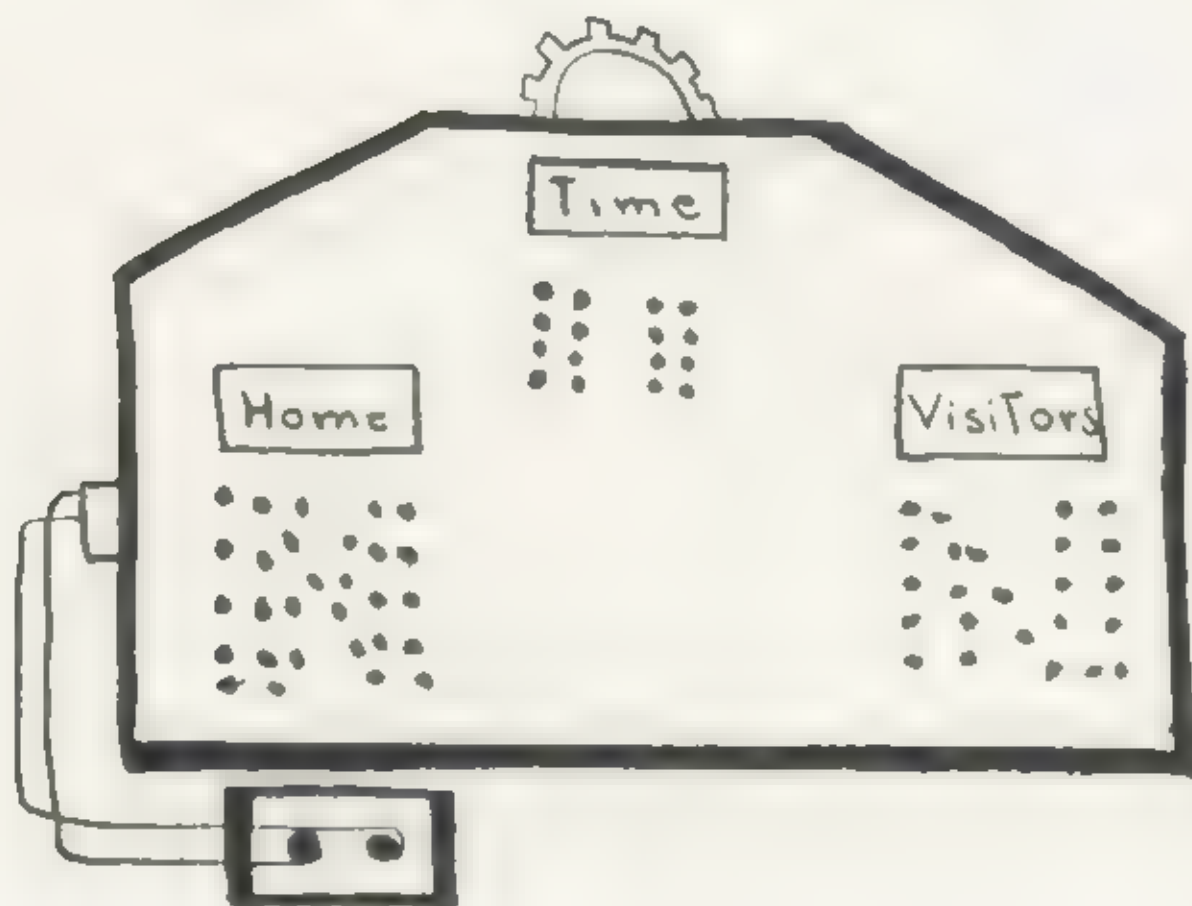

The Friday night rally of Homecoming Week End saw the stage entrance of the school mascot, "Zeke," with the co-cheering captains astride him. The next day competing with the Hebron cheerleaders, the Kents Hill squad cheered two successful games, one against Fryeburg in football, the other against Hebron in soccer.

During the basketball season, our cheerleaders accompanied the team away from school and certainly gave a great deal of encouragement to our players, particularly at the last game of the season at Hebron Academy.

Line up!

Kents Hill's 1957 football team was the finest our school has had for many years. Competing with some of Maine's and New Hampshire's outstanding gridiron combines, the starters performed notably. The opposition found our stanch 195-pound line difficult to penetrate and its last backs hard to suppress. Sparked by Co Captains Nate Nickerson and Pat DeArmott, the squad earned a record of four wins out of six contests. One of the high points of the season was the victory over the rival Hebron team.

Ending the season with a 5 win 2 loss record, the 1957 soccer team, ably piloted by Coach Dexter, roared to its finest season since the game was introduced three years ago.

Robert Hall's 60 yard kick against Fryeburg, Andrew McConnell's 11 goals, the 4 to 2 victory over Hebron, and the fine defensive work by halfback David McConnell and goalie John Hewes highlighted the season.

At the annual fall sports banquet, Whitney Haag was awarded the captainship for the season and Andrew McConnell the Soccer Trophy.

Cross-Country

The cross-country team had little success in the early season, due to sickness and injury. Once the boys were able to train in earnest, the results improved. The group placed a close second in the State Prep School Meet, not by individual standouts, but by a high team average.

Archery

Our seven enthusiastic archers cheerfully undertook many tasks, from wrestling with the too small target cover to taking leaves. They looked forward to early success but, after trying the traditional 20, 30, 40 yards of the Columbia Round, had only low scores. Not giving up, they tried again at five yards and were much more successful. After conquering stationary targets, our bowwomen went to work on the track team who obligingly ran by every afternoon. No luck!

Field Hockey

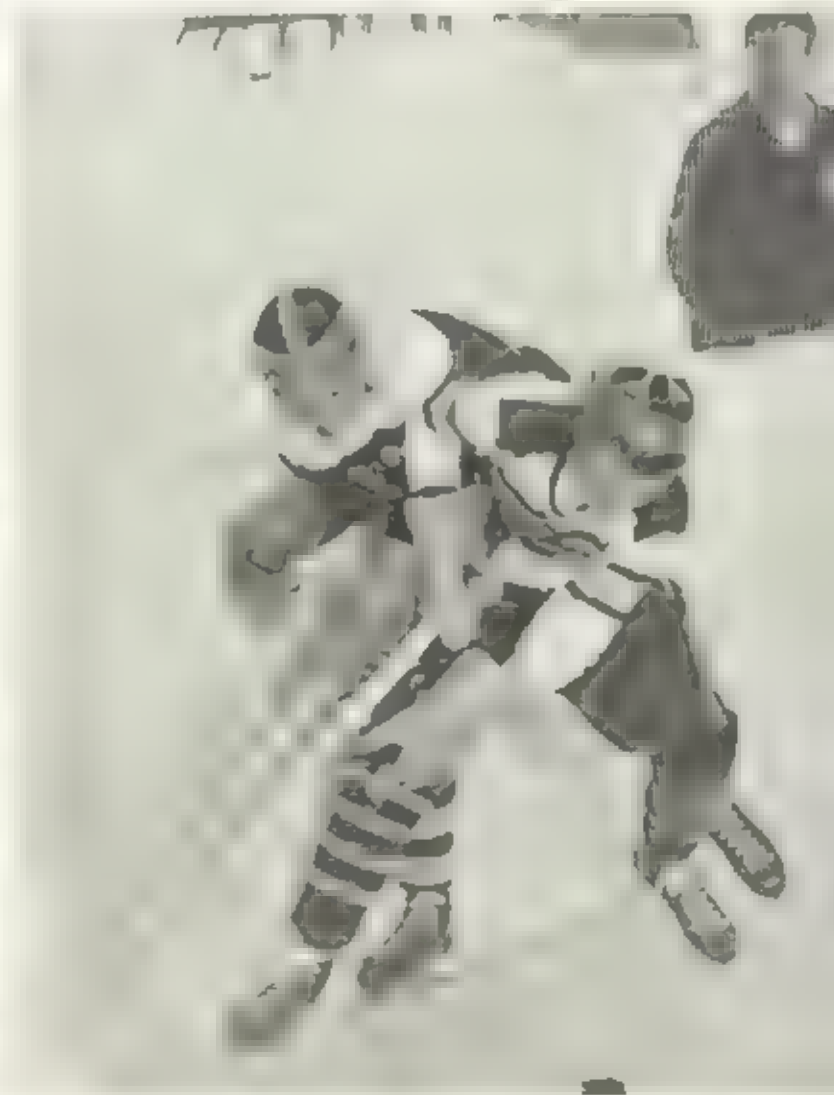

During the brisk fall days Coach Sickels and her team were seen out on the field practicing lunges, flicks and passes. Then to the cries of "Timers and scores ready!", "Captain ready!", "Time in with the whistle!", the Hooters' romping eleven were off to another victorious season. In spite of inclement weather, injuries and other unfortunate incidents, only three out of ten games went to our opponents.

Ice Hockey

This year, the weather proved to be a terrible hindrance the team had to take trips to nearby artificial rinks to get in some practice. Therefore, considering Mother Nature's lack of cooperation, we can still say that, under the leadership of Co-Captains John Stewart and Ed Connors, the hockey team did well, winning five games and dropping four.

Ski

New England Prep School Ski Championships - The Kents Hill Ski Team finished in seventh place in a field of twelve schools at the Prep School Championships held at Dartmouth College. The team showed strength in the cross-country and jumping events, but did not fare as well in the rugged alpine events. Tim Faulkner and Don Stevenson tied for eleventh place in the four-mile cross-country to place the Kents Hill Team to a fourth place team position in that event. Sophomore Dick Clark soared like a bird on the forty-meter jump to gain sixth place, well ahead of his older brother and Team Captain, Tom Clark, who finished thirteenth.

This was the best year since the 1949-50 season. Thirteen straight victories were compiled before the team was topped by Hebron in the season's finale. Excellent team play, a fine fast break, rugged rebounding, good shooting, and a fighting spirit were marked characteristics of the team's brand of ball. The team's scoring average per game was seventy-four points, with Captain Andy McConnell and John Hewes the leaders in this department with 22.8 and 18.9 points per game average. Dick Small and Chuck Mason provided an excellent back court combination, Nate Nickerson was strong off the boards and on defense, Irwin Lacritz was a valuable sixth man and Whit Haag came through with some important points.

The season's record for the varsity team was eight wins and four losses. Two of these defeats were by one point - one was against Wilton which was our first game of the season, the other was against Jay which we defeated later by two points. Our other two losses were to Farmington who edged us out 49-37 in the first game and 61-48 in the second.

We were fortunate to have experienced forwards in Captain Mary Hewett, Sandra Yates, Martha Peterson, and Judy Holden plus excellent defensive work with Ann Walbridge, Ann Farrar, Dianne Douglas, and Janet Lermond. Captain Mary Hewett scored 2.17 points during the season and was awarded the Erle S. Huse Foul Shooting Trophy for obtaining 55% of the foul shots. Sandy Yates also had a high score, 2.12 points.
